Tenor Lead

Sit - ting by the fire - side, watch - ing em - ber's soft - ly glow, I

Baritone Bass

5 6 7 8

put my dai - ly cares a - side and think of friends I used to know. As

9 10 11 12

I reach back in mem - o - ry, I re - call an old time mel - o - dy; I can hear it yet by my old quar - tet, in the days that used to be. —

13 14 15 16

Refrain:

17 18 19 20

I won - der what has hap - pened to that old quar - tet of mine, I hope and pray we'll meet a - gain some - where, some day, some time; If

21 22 23 24

25 26 27 28

on - ly to re - mind them how dear they are to me And 29 30 31 32

just how much I miss the touch of four - part har - mo - ny.

33 34 35 36

won - der if they still re - call the tears that filled our eyes, The night the crowd ap - plaud - ed when we won our first big prize; All that won our first prize;

37 38 39 40

41 42 43 44

I pos - sess I would for - sake if just once more I could par - take, Sing - ing

45 46 47

one more song, just one more time, With that old quar - tet of
